How creative can you be? Some what if statements may come true, others will never happen.you had to teach the class on the first day of school? Select 2 of the what if statements and respond by answering: How you would feel?there were no pencils or paper at school? How would it change the first day of school? there were no desks or chairs? How would you respond or help to this 'what if' situation? your teacher didn't speak your language? What would you do?
