

Name:

Using Electricity or Fuel to Move

Here are two pictures of me in something that requires electricity or fuel to move:

The form consists of two large, empty rectangular boxes defined by dashed lines. The top box is intended for a drawing of the student in a vehicle or machine that uses electricity or fuel for movement. The bottom box is also intended for a similar drawing. The boxes are separated by a horizontal dashed line.