

Name: _____

Living or Non Living: Cloze

Living and non living _____ are all around us. Look around you, do you see living and non living things? People, _____ and _____ are all examples of living things. Rocks, water and _____ are examples of non living things. All living things _____, breathe, _____, reproduce and excrete or have waste. Some non living things can move but non living things do not _____, breathe, grow or excrete. Examples of a non living things that move are waterfalls, _____, cars and clouds. Living things reproduce. Animals will have _____ or lay eggs. Humans have babies. Plants reproduce in the form of _____, the seeds will germinate and will become new _____. Some non living things are _____ and some are man made. Can you think of natural and man made non living things? Examples of man made non living things are _____, cars, shoes, bridges and furniture. Examples of natural non living things are _____, the sun, rain, _____, snow and sand. Some non living things are made of material that was once living. Tables and chairs are sometimes made of _____ which was once a living tree. Everything around us is either _____ or non living.

- | | | | | |
|------------|-----------|--------------|-----------|-----------|
| A. bikes | B. move | C. reproduce | D. plants | E. plants |
| F. living | G. wood | H. animals | I. seeds | J. grow |
| K. soil | L. fire | M. babies | N. things | O. rocks |
| P. natural | Q. clouds | | | |

Name: _____

Living or Non Living: Cloze

Living and non living things are all around us. Look around you, do you see living and non living things? People, plants and animals are all examples of living things. Rocks, water and soil are examples of non living things. All living things grow, breathe, move, reproduce and excrete or have waste. Some non living things can move but non living things do not reproduce, breathe, grow or excrete. Examples of a non living things that move are waterfalls, fire, cars and clouds. Living things reproduce. Animals will have babies or lay eggs. Humans have babies. Plants reproduce in the form of seeds, the seeds will germinate and will become new plants. Some non living things are natural and some are manmade. Can you think of natural and manmade non living things? Examples of manmade non living things are bikes, cars, shoes, bridges and furniture. Examples of natural non living things are clouds, the sun, rain, rocks, snow and sand. Some non living things are made of material that was once living. Tables and chairs are sometimes made of wood which was once a living tree. Everything around us is either living or non living.

- | | | | | |
|------------|-----------|--------------|-----------|-----------|
| A. bikes | B. move | C. reproduce | D. plants | E. plants |
| F. living | G. wood | H. animals | I. seeds | J. grow |
| K. soil | L. fire | M. babies | N. things | O. rocks |
| P. natural | Q. clouds | | | |