Book Selection Task

Before reading a book, the reader will scan a book quickly looking for key information. Readers look at the cover, inside the cover and scan chapter titles to determine if it is a book they think they would enjoy reading or not.

Your Task: Using the elements of fiction below determine how they factor in to why you would want to read this book or not.

① Title and Book Cover:

② Chapter Titles:

③ Introduction or Forward:

④ First paragraph or two:

⑤ Would you read? Why or why not?
