Reading Response Tracking List

1. _____How is this book similar/different to other books you have read. Be specific?

2. _____What are your reasons for selecting this book and why? Why might somebody not like this book?

3. _____What type of person would be interested in this book? Why?

4. _____Write a paragraph convincing some body to read this book.

5. _____If you changed the point of view in this story, what would change?

6. _____What is your favorite part and why?

7. _____Pretend you've been asked to advertise this book. What would key selling features be?

8. _____What didn't you like about this book? How would you change it?

9. _____Would it make a good movie? Why, or why not?

10. _____Rate this book on a scale of 1-5, 5 being the best and explain why you gave this rating.

11. _____Who is your favorite character and why?

12. _____Describe how you and the main character are alike and how you and the main character are not alike.

13. _____Write 3 questions to the author.

14. _____Who is telling the story and why do you think the author chose to do it this way?

15. _____Describe one of the main events and why you think it's a main event.

16. _____Would you read another book by this author? Why or why not?

17. _____Draw and label a picture of the setting of this story. OR Explain in detail, the setting of the story.

18. _____Develop a story time line for this book.

19. _____Find 8 action words from the story and list them and define them.

20. _____Find 8 compound words from the story and list them..

21. _____Find 6 contractions from the story, list them and their long form.

22. _____Select a character and write 6 descriptive words about him or her. Explain why those descriptions fit.

23. _____Design a different cover for this story.

24. _____Illustrate an event from the story.

25. _____Describe the problem or conflict and how it was resolved.

26. _____Write a commercial for this book and be prepared to present it.

27. _____Give an overview of the beginning, middle and ending of this book.

28. _____What character is most like you and why?

29. _____List the characters and 3 words to describe each of them.

30. _____What genre would this story be and why? (comedy, horror, fantasy…)