

Name: _____

Singular and Plural: these/those or this/that?

These and that are singular, these and those are plural. Look at each sentence, change the underlined words—if it's plural, change it to singular, if it's singular, change it to plural.

Examples: I like this candy. / I like these candies. I'll play with those toys. I'll play with this toy.

1 Let's play with this ball. _____

2 The cat likes this toy. _____

3 Pass me those apples. _____

4 Have you read this book? _____

5 This is my friend. _____

6 I read those books already. _____

7 Let's play with these balls. _____

8 These people are my neighbors. _____

ANSWERS:

1. Let's play with these OR those balls.
2. The cat likes these OR those toys.
3. Pass me that apple.
4. Have you read those OR these books?
5. These are my friends.
6. I read this OR that book already.
7. Let's play with this OR that ball.
8. This person is my neighbor.