

What is the Amount?

Example: What is the currency values of "Three hundred twenty-nine dollars and ninety cents"? Answer: $329.90

- 1) How much money is represented by the written form "forty-two dollars and five cents"?
- 2) Write the currency value of "two hundred seventy-eight dollars and fifty cents" in standard form.
- 3) If I have ten dollars and sixty cents, how would you write this amount using numbers?
- 4) Convert the written form "one hundred twenty-three dollars and seventy-five cents" into numeric form.
- 5) What is the numerical value of "three hundred fifty dollars" when showing currency value?
- 6) Write the currency value of "eighty-seven dollars and ninety-nine cents" using numbers.
- 7) How much money is represented by the written form "four hundred fifty dollars"?
- 8) Convert the written form "ninety-eight dollars and twenty cents" into currency value.
- 9) Write the currency value of "two hundred thirty dollars and fifty cents" in standard form.
- 10) If I have five dollars and forty cents, how would you write this amount using numbers?