

What is the Amount?

Example: What is the currency values of "Three hundred twenty-nine dollars and ninety cents"? Answer: $329.90

- 1) How much money is represented by the written form "one hundred forty-two dollars and sixteen cents"?
- 2) Write the currency value of "three hundred sixty-two dollars and five cents" in standard form.
- 3) If I have twenty-one dollars and sixty cents, how would you write this amount using numbers?
- 4) Convert the written form "one hundred thirty-two dollars and seventy cents" into numeric form.
- 5) What is the numerical value of "five hundred twenty dollars" when showing currency value?
- 6) Write the currency value of "thirty-seven dollars and ninety cents" using numbers.
- 7) How much money is represented by the written form "four hundred eighty-six dollars"?
- 8) Convert the written form "ninety-three dollars and ten cents" into currency value.
- 9) Write the currency value of "one hundred fifty dollars and fifty-two cents" in standard form.
- 10) If I have eighteen dollars and four cents, how would you write this amount using numbers?