

Adverbs

Underline the adverb then write a similar sentence using a different adverb

Example: The rain stopped abruptly and the sun came out.
The rain stopped slowly and then the sun came out.

- 1) The cat quietly crept into the room.
- 2) We played at the park happily all afternoon.
- 3) She spoke softly to the injured bird.
- 4) The car moved slowly in heavy traffic.
- 5) The butterfly flew gracefully from flower to flower.
- 6) He completed his homework quickly before dinner.
- 7) The friends laughed loudly at the funny joke.
- 8) The sun set beautifully behind the mountains.
- 9) The dog wagged its tail excitedly when he saw the cat.
- 10) The teacher explained the lesson clearly to the class.