

Animal Adaptations

Animal adaptations are physical characteristics or behaviors that help them to survive in their habitat.

Some examples are:

- Blends into their surroundings
- Beaks
- Camouflage
- Imitates other animals to avoid predators. (Mimicry)
- Scales (keep water out of body)
- Feathers for warmth
- Migrates
- Hibernates
- Flies
- Slim bodies for swimming
- Fins / flippers
- Blowholes
- Conserves fat in their bodies
- Conserves water in their bodies
- Fur
- Gills
- Shells
- Webbed feet
- Sharp teeth
- Claws
- Venom