

My Classroom Habits

Success in the classroom starts with great learning habits. Look at the following habits and assess yourself by putting a circle around what fits you best:

I listen attentively:

(Pay attention without interrupting.)

Always

Sometimes

Never

I Follow directions:

(Follow instructions and complete tasks.)

Always

Sometimes

Never

I share and take turns:

(Cooperative and friendly.)

Always

Sometimes

Never

I have self-control:

(Manage my emotions and behavior, remain positive, stay focused.)

Always

Sometimes

Never

I raise my hand.

(Ask for help appropriately instead of speaking out.)

Always

Sometimes

Never

I am organized.

(I help tidy up and keep my belongings organized)

Always

Sometimes

Never

Provide 2 statements, one for your goals for improvement and one showing what you are proud of based on the above selections.