

Place The Comma

Put the commas into the sentence where they belong:

1. Jim doesn't like to go to the dentist but he knows it's important to go regularly.
2. We didn't sell much at our sale so we decided to advertise it on the radio.
3. In the next lesson we'll learn all about the solar system.
4. James liked the movie but he didn't like the actors in it.
5. After I went shopping I went home and made cupcakes cookies fudge, and brownies.
6. Although I had a really big lunch I can't wait to have pie and ice cream for dessert.
7. Whenever I eat at the Hamburger Shop I always order the same thing to eat.
8. My sister gave me all of her books fiction and non-fiction.
9. I have not seen any slugs aphids or beetles in the vegetable garden this year.
10. Newspapers are always looking to save space and one argument for leaving the comma out is that it's unnecessary in simple sentences.

Answers:

1. Jim doesn't like to go to the dentist, but he knows it's important to go regularly.
2. We didn't sell much at our sale, so we decided to advertise it on the radio.
3. In the next lesson, we'll learn all about the solar system.
4. James liked the movie, but he didn't like the actors in it.
5. After I went shopping, I went home and made cupcakes, cookies, fudge, and brownies.
6. Although I had a really big lunch, I can't wait to have pie and ice cream for dessert.
7. Whenever I eat at the Hamburger Shop, I always order the same thing to eat.
8. My sister gave me all of her books, fiction and non-fiction.
9. I have not seen any slugs, aphids or beetles in the vegetable garden this year.
10. Newspapers are always looking to save space, and one argument for leaving the comma out is that it's unnecessary in simple sentences.