

The Comma

When Using Quotation Marks

Commas are often required with quotations either at the beginning or the end.

Put the commas into the sentence where they belong:

- 1) "I'm going to the park" said my friend.
- 2) "I like to play on the swings" she said.
- 3) "Me too" I said.
- 4) "Let's go now" she said.
- 5) "Okay" I said.
- 6) "My teacher said, 'Be kind to one another.'"
- 7) "I will" I said.
- 8) "Me too" said my friend.
- 9) "Okay" said the girl but she was still unhappy.
- 10) "Me too" said my friend.
- 11) "I like to read it before I go to bed" she said.
- 12) "No" said the father "you've already had two cookies."
- 13) "The sign said 'No Trespassing.'"
- 14) "We'll get in trouble if we go in there" I said.
- 15) "I know" said my friend.

ANSWERS:

Put the commas into the sentence where they belong:

- 1) "I'm going to the park," said my friend.
- 2) "I like to play on the swings," she said.
- 3) "Me too," I said.
- 4) "Let's go now," she said.
- 5) "Okay," I said.
- 6) "My teacher said, 'Be kind to one another.'"
- 7) "I will," I said.
- 8) "Me too," said my friend.
- 9) "Okay," said the girl, but she was still unhappy.
- 10) "Me too," said my friend.
- 11) "I like to read it before I go to bed."
- 12) "No," said the father, "you've already had two cookies."
- 13) "The sign said, 'No Trespassing.'"
- 14) "We'll get in trouble if we go in there," I said.
- 15) "I know," said my friend.