

10

Language Quiz

Easily confused words:

1. I watched the balloon's ascent/assent drift into the sky.
2. The children have awoken/awaken.

Correct the sentence:

1. Many many years ago far more people were alliterate only a few individuals could read fluently
2. There was over 100 people at the rally this week but only a few showed up last week

Parts of Speech Find the predicates in the sentences:

1. My friend Sam will play in our golf tournament.
2. Our company arrived late today.

Idiom or Personification:

1. I am ready for the exam, I burned the midnight oil last night.
2. I am flat broke!
3. The fire swallowed the entire forest.

Correct Spellings

1. controversy / contraversy
2. foreign / foriegn

True or False:

1. She will speak is an example of using the present tense.
2. The first word in a closing of a letter should always be capitalized. (Sincerely yours)

Language Quiz: Answers

Easily confused words:

1. I watched the balloon's ascent/assent drift into the sky.
2. The children have awoken/awaken.

Correct the sentence:

1. Many, many years ago, far more people were illiterate/alliterate, only a few individuals could read fluently.
2. There was over 100 people at the rally this week, but only a few showed up last week.

Parts of Speech Find the predicates in the sentences:

1. My friend Sam will play in our golf tournament.
2. Our company arrived late today.

Idiom or Personification:

1. I am ready for the exam, I burned the midnight oil last night. I
2. I am flat broke! I
3. The fire swallowed the entire forest. P

Correct Spellings

1. controversy / contraversy
2. foreign / foriegn

True or False:

1. She will speak is an example of using the present tense. F
2. The first word in a closing of a letter should always be capitalized. T (Sincerely yours)