

14

Language Quiz

Easily confused words:

1. I need to find somebody to alter/altar my new uniform, as it's too big.
2. I need to apprise/appraise the staff of the new policies coming into effect on Monday.

Correct the sentence:

1. Twenty-one and one-half hours after take off we landed in sydney Australia
2. robert E. Lee led the Confederate army in the civil War

Parts of Speech Find the abstract noun:

1. The truth of the matter is, I don't trust you.
2. I really like your idea better than mine.

Simile or Personification:

1. She's as happy as a lark.
2. You bedroom is as clean as a whistle.

Correct Spellings

1. acknowlege / acknowledge
2. amateur / amatuer

True or False:

1. A complement is the word or words that complete the meaning of a verb.
2. Chose is the past tense of the verb choose.

Language Quiz: Answers

Easily confused words:

1. I need to find somebody to alter/altar my new uniform, as it's too big.
2. I need to apprise/appraise the staff of the new policies coming into effect on Monday.

Correct the sentence:

1. Twenty-one and one-half hours after take off, we landed in Sydney, Australia.
2. Robert E. Lee led the Confederate Army in the Civil War.

Parts of Speech Find the abstract noun:

1. The truth of the matter is, I don't trust you.
2. I really like your idea better than mine.

Simile or Personification:

1. She's as happy as a lark. S
2. Your bedroom is as clean as a whistle. S

Correct Spellings

1. acknowlege / acknowledge
2. amateur / amatuer

True or False:

1. A complement is the word or words that complete the meaning of a verb. T
2. Chose is the past tense of the verb choose. T