

15

Language Quiz

Easily confused words:

1. I waited with bated/baited breath on the outcome of the race.
2. I need to get the brakes/breaks repaired on my bike.

Correct the sentence:

1. Mrs Jones my teacher will be away at a conference in New York all next week
2. Bill's dog an irish terrier always attracts a lot of attention when he walks it.

Parts of Speech Find the concrete nouns in the sentences:

1. How many pairs of shoes do you own?
2. My skin is really dry.

Hyperbole or Personification:

1. You snore louder than a jet engine.
2. The stars danced across the midnight sky.

Correct Spellings

1. tomatoes / tomatos
2. sieze / seize

True or False:

1. I will walk with you on Tuesday. The underlined verb tense is and example of a future tense.
2. They giggled quite loudly. The underlined word is an example of a transitive verb. (it is an example of an intransitive verb, as it does not have a direct object.)

Easily confused words:

1. I waited with bated/baited breath on the outcome of the race.
2. I need to get the brakes/breaks repaired on my bike.

Correct the sentence:

1. Mrs. Jones, my teacher, will be away at a conference in New York all next week.
2. Bill's dog, an Irish Terrier, always attracts a lot of attention when he walks it.

Parts of Speech Find the concrete nouns in the sentences:

1. How many pairs of shoes do you own?
2. My skin is really dry.

Hyperbole or Personification:

1. You snore louder than a jet engine. H
2. The stars danced across the midnight sky. P

Correct Spellings

1. tomatoes / tomatos
2. sieze / seize

True or False:

1. I will walk with you on Tuesday. The underlined verb tense is an example of a future tense. T
2. They giggled quite loudly. The underlined word is an example of a transitive verb. F
(it is an example of an intransitive verb, as it does not have a direct object.)