

17

Language Quiz

Easily confused words:

1. Salad is the first course/coarse for our supper this evening.
2. We stood in the cue/queue for hours just to get our license renewed.

Correct the sentence:

1. In 2009 the well-known singer and musician michael jackson died
2. My mothers sister who lives in Tokyo is coming to visit

Parts of Speech Find the possessive pronouns in the sentences:

1. Is that tablet mine or yours?
2. Will you please offer the show the students which desks are theirs?

Idiom or Simile:

1. His hands are as cold as ice.
2. Your puppy is as gentle as a lamb.
3. He's always biting off more than he can chew.

Correct Spellings

1. vacuum / vacuum
2. similar / similer

True or False:

1. Commas should always be used after abbreviations. (periods should be used, Mr. Dr. ft.)
2. An interrogative sentence ends with a question mark.

Language Quiz: Answers

Easily confused words:

1. Salad is the first course/coarse for our supper this evening.
2. We stood in the cue/queue for hours just to get our license renewed.

Correct the sentence:

1. In 2009, the well-known singer and musician Michael Jackson died.
2. My mother's sister, who lives in Tokyo, is coming to visit.

Parts of Speech Find the possessive pronouns in the sentences:

1. Is that tablet mine or yours?
2. Will you please offer the show the students which desks are theirs?

Idiom or Simile:

1. His hands are as cold as ice. S
2. Your puppy is as gentle as a lamb. S
3. He's always biting off more than he can chew. I

Correct Spellings

1. vacuum / vacuum
2. similar / similer

True or False:

1. Commas should always be used after abbreviations. F (periods should be used, Mr. Dr. ft.)
2. An interrogative sentence ends with a question mark. T