

Easily confused words:

1. The peddle/pedal on my bike came off in the trail.
2. She is as skinny as a pole/poll.

Correct the sentence:

1. I really wanted coffee this morning but i ran out of coffee beans
2. I drove to school with jake ann and tabitha

Parts of Speech Find the adverbs in the sentences:

1. I'll see you on Saturday.
2. I often meet them at the park.

Idiom or Personification:

1. The ocean waves danced in the moonlight.
2. The blizzard swallowed our car.

Correct Spellings

1. maintainance / maintenance
2. liesure / leisure

True or False:

1. The first word in a salutation of a letter is always capitalized.
2. Table and books are examples of abstract nouns. (abstract nouns are ideas, feelings, traits, or qualities—for example: weakness, pity, anger, love)

Easily confused words:

1. The peddle/pedal on my bike came off in the trail.
2. She is as skinny as a pole/poll.

Correct the sentence:

1. I really wanted coffee this morning, but I ran out of coffee beans.
2. I drove to school with Jake, Ann, and Tabitha.

Parts of Speech Find the adverbs in the sentences:

1. I'll see you on Saturday.
2. I often meet them at the park.

Idiom or Personification:

1. The ocean waves danced in the moonlight. P
2. The blizzard swallowed our car. P

Correct Spellings

1. maintainance / maintenance
2. liesure / leisure

True or False:

1. The first word in a salutation of a letter is always capitalized. T
2. Table and books are examples of abstract nouns. F (abstract nouns are ideas, feelings, traits, or qualities—for example: weakness, pity, anger, love)