

Easily confused words:

1. My mother was loath / loath to break up the argument between the two of us.
2. I need a job, I have been dependent/dependant on my parent's for money for too long.

Correct the sentence:

1. I put some asiago cheese on my spaghetti and it was really tasty
2. We had an agreement the first to finish buys the other an ice cream cone
3. Commas are a tricky challenging type of punctuation

Parts of Speech Find the pronouns in the sentences:

1. The largest slice of pica is mine!
2. We are in first place in the read-a-thon.

Idiom or Metaphor:

1. Our teacher was boiling mad at them today.
2. As you know, laughter is always the best medicine.

Correct Spellings

1. disappoint / dissappoint
2. colum / column

True or False:

1. You can say the children were afraid, but not, the afraid children.
2. To form the past of most verbs, just add 'ed'.

Easily confused words:

1. My mother was loath / loath to break up the argument between the two of us.
2. I need a job, I have been dependent/dependant on my parent's for money for too long.

Correct the sentence:

1. I put some Asiago cheese on my spaghetti, and it was really tasty.
2. We had an agreement: the first to finish, buys the other an ice cream cone.
3. Commas are a tricky, challenging type of punctuation.

Parts of Speech Find the pronouns in the sentences:

1. The largest slice of pica is mine!
2. We are in first place in the read-a-thon.

Idiom or Metaphor:

1. Our teacher was boiling mad at them today. M
2. As you know, laughter is always the best medicine. M

Correct Spellings

1. disappoint / dissappoint
2. colum / column

True or False:

1. You can say the children were afraid, but not, the afraid children. T
2. To form the past of most verbs, just add 'ed'. T