

3

Language Quiz

Easily confused words:

1. Your blue sweater really complements/compliments your blue eyes.
2. Gambling is a sure way to lose/loose your money.
3. Did you see the latest addition/edition of our school newspaper?

Correct the sentence:

1. jill plays three instruments guitar flute and saxophone
2. Their is only won issue I am working that day.
3. I have a dental appointment at 1000 in the morning.

Parts of Speech: Find the prepositions

1. The book on the table.
2. The hook behind the door.

Similes or Proverb:

1. Laugh and the world laughs with you, weep and you weep alone.
2. Absence makes the heart grow fonder.

Correct Spelling is:

1. quarantene or quarantine
2. occasion or occassion

True or False:

1. A comma is a punctuation mark that means to pause.
2. Commas should never be used to separate independent clauses.

3

Language Quiz: Answers

Easily confused words:

1. Your blue sweater really complements/compliments your blue eyes.
2. Gambling is a sure way to lose/loose your money.
3. Did you see the latest addition/edition of our school newspaper?

Correct the sentence:

1. Jill plays three instruments: guitar, flute, and saxophone.
2. There is only one issue: I am working that day.
3. I have a dental appointment at 10:00 in the morning.

Parts of Speech: Find the prepositions

1. The book on the table.
2. The hook behind the door.

Similes or Proverb:

1. Laugh and the world laughs with you, weep and you weep alone. P
2. Absence makes the heart grow fonder. P

Correct Spelling is:

1. quarantene or quarantine
2. occasion or occassion

True or False:

1. A comma is a punctuation mark that means to pause. T
2. Commas should never be used to separate independent clauses. F