

5

Language Quiz

Easily confused words:

1. Her conscience /conscious told her to turn in the money she found.
2. Shall/will I bring you the tickets when I come over?

Correct the sentence:

1. I no it wasnt completely your fault but you must take some of the blame
2. when I move to miami I'll have to find a new apartment

Parts of Speech Find the conjunctions:

1. I like running and cycling but, I don't like sweating afterwards.
2. Richard was late for school, and he missed the exam.

Personification or Idiom:

1. Quit beating around the bush.
2. That last chocolate chip cookie has my name on it.

Correct Spelling is:

1. calender or calendar
2. existence or existance

True or False:

1. A semicolon can link to complete sentences.
2. A semicolon is similar to a hyphen.
3. Apostrophes are often used to replace letters in words and shorten them.

5

Language Quiz: Answers

Easily confused words:

1. Her conscience /conscious told her to turn in the money she found.
2. Shall/will I bring you the tickets when I come over?

Correct the sentence:

1. I know it wasn't completely your fault, but you must take some of the blame.
2. When I move to Miami, I'll have to find a new apartment.

Parts of Speech Find the conjunctions:

1. I like running and cycling but, I don't like sweating afterwards.
2. Richard was late for school, and he missed the exam.

Personification or Idiom:

1. Quit beating around the bush. I
2. That last chocolate chip cookie has my name on it. P

Correct Spelling is:

1. calender or calendar
2. existence or existance

True or False:

1. A semicolon can link to complete sentences. T
2. A semicolon is similar to a hypen. F
3. Apostrophes are often used to replace letters in words and shorten them. T