

Design a Community/City and Your Own Government

Give your community a name. Be creative and complete the following about your city:

1. What laws will there be? What will happen when people break the laws?
2. How will the citizens be protected?
3. What public services will there be? (library, parks, museum, transportation, trash...)
4. What will the government officials be called and what will their responsibilities be?