

Character: Complete the following about a character:

How do other characters respond to this character?

What actions convey what this character is like?

Provide examples where the author tells specifically what the character is like.

How do you find out what the character is thinking?

Who is the character?

Describe the character's appearance and how the author informs you of the appearance.

Does the author leave anything out about the character? Explain your answer.