

Fairness

Taking turns.

List as many examples as you can about when it is important to take turns.

1

© <https://worksheetplace.com>

Fairness

Taking turns.

Why is it important to take turns? What would happen if nobody waited their turn?

2

© <https://worksheetplace.com>

Fairness

Play fair.

What does it mean to play fair? Provide examples.

3

© <https://worksheetplace.com>

Fairness

No fair!

Have you ever told anyone 'No Fair!' or been told, 'You're not being fair'? Explain what happened.

4

© <https://worksheetplace.com>

Fairness

Fairness—not taking advantage of others.

Have you ever felt taken advantage of? Explain what happened and how you felt.

5

© <https://worksheetplace.com>

Fairness

Treat others the way you wish to be treated.

Explain what the statement above means and provide tips for treating others the way you wish to be treated.

6

© <https://worksheetplace.com>

Fairness

Unfair treatment.

When you see somebody being treated unfairly, what can you do?

7

© <https://worksheetplace.com>

Fairness

Fairness at school.

Make a list of all the ways everyone can be fair at school.

8

© <https://worksheetplace.com>

Fairness

Fairness and equal.

Explain how being fair and equal are similar but not the same.

9

© <https://worksheetplace.com>

Fairness

A judge.

A judge must decide on what is fair for every ruling. What would be the hardest part of being a judge? Would you want to be a judge? Why or why not?

10

© <https://worksheetplace.com>