

Growth Mindset Activity

Explain the following statement below and then explain how this statement is/was relative to you at some point in your life

"Failure is essential for success. If failure is avoided, then success is also avoided."

