

Name:

Have Or Has?

1. You have/has done exceptionally well in the test.
2. Have/Has some courage to confront him.
3. The thief has/have finally been caught.
4. Nobody have/has his kind of talent.
5. He has/have been very consistent with his dealings.
6. After all he have/has the power to annul the election.
7. I think you added more salt than you should has/have.
8. Would you like to have/has some more cheese?
9. I think you have/has not been actively involved enough.
10. The school event has/have quickly gained popularity among the people.

Answers

1. You have done exceptionally well in the test.
2. Have some courage to confront him.
3. The thief has finally been caught.
4. Nobody has his kind of talent.
5. He has been very consistent with his dealings.
6. After all he has the power to annul the election.
7. I think you added more salt than you should have.
8. Would you like to have some more cheese?
9. I think you have not been actively involved enough.
10. The school event has quickly gained popularity among the people.