

Name: _____

Have or Has?

1. Convincing his sister has/have been very difficult to do.
2. Getting the task done have/has been very easy.
3. But what could have/has happened to him?
4. The players has/have been able to adjust to the new game plan.
5. The child's talent have/has not been developed.
6. She is allowed to have/has another plate of ice cream.
7. It would has/have cost them a lot more to build the house.
8. She have/has been the most persistent contestant.
9. I think he has/have the mumps.
10. What have/has you come for?

Answers

1. Convincing his sister has been very difficult to do.
2. Getting the task done has been very easy.
3. But what could have happened to him?
4. The players have been able to adjust to the new game plan.
5. The child's talent has not been developed.
6. She is allowed to have another plate of ice cream.
7. It would have cost them a lot more to build the house.
8. She has been the most persistent contestant.
9. I think he has the mumps.
10. What have you come for?