

Name: _____

Have or Has?

1. I has/have what it takes to compete with equally skilled players.
2. I should has/have accepted the offer.
3. She has/have three cousins.
4. Publishing the book has/have been very helpful.
5. The goods have/has been rejected.
6. They has/have been well behaved.
7. If John has/have time, maybe he could help us.
8. Have/Has anyone ever told you that you are beautiful?
9. The people has/have the motivation and the drive to push on.
10. She have/has been very cold towards her.

Answers

1. I have what it takes to compete with equally skilled players.
2. I should have accepted the offer.
3. She has three cousins.
4. Publishing the book has been very helpful.
5. The goods have been rejected.
6. They have been well behaved.
7. If John has time, maybe he could help us.
8. Has anyone ever told you that you are beautiful?
9. The people have the motivation and the drive to push on.
10. She has been very cold towards her.