Imitation Sentences

Learn to use the colon by imitating the sentence. Look at the colon use in the sentence and write a sentence that is similar and requires the same use of the colon.

For Example— He whispered in her ear: “Are you nervous about performing next?”.

Imitation Sentence: I have all the ingredients for sundaes: ice cream sauces, berries and whipping cream.

A colon can be used at the beginning of lists, to introduce speech and in time to separate hours and minutes.

Imitate the following sentence twice:

She pointed at me and yelled: “It’s your turn!”
