

Informational Paragraph Rubric

Category	4 Points	3 Points	2 Points	1 Point
Content	Accurate, detailed, and relevant information about the chosen topic. It provides clear facts, examples, or explanations.	Mostly accurate and relevant information, but some details may be missing or unclear.	Limited or inaccurate information, and important details are missing.	Unrelated to the chosen topic and lacks factual information.
Organization	Well-organized, with a clear introduction, well-structured supporting details, good flow and a conclusion. .	Somewhat organized, issues with the flow of information or clarity.	Organization is unclear, and the paragraph lacks a logical sequence of information.	Disorganized and difficult to follow.
Language	Strong facts and relevant details. Sentences are clear and easy to understand.	Facts and details included. Most sentences are clear.	Some facts and details, sentences lack flow..	Very basic, and sentences are often unclear or confusing.
Presentation	The paragraph is neatly written or typed and is well-structured. It includes proper punctuation, capitalization, and paragraph indentation.	The paragraph is somewhat neat, but there may be minor issues with punctuation or presentation.	The paragraph may be messy or have noticeable issues with punctuation and presentation.	The paragraph is illegible or incomplete, making it difficult to read.