

Irregular Verbs Quiz

Select the sentence that uses the correct version of the irregular verb.

* Indicates required question

1. Which sentence uses the irregular verb 'arise' correctly? * 1 point

Mark only one oval.

- The problem arose yesterday.
- I arise early every morning.
- She arisen from her nap.
- They arises to the challenge.

2. Which sentence uses the irregular verb 'awake' correctly? * 1 point

Mark only one oval.

- I awoke from my dream.
- He awake up late today.
- They awaked to the sound of music.
- She awakens at dawn.

3. Which sentence uses the irregular verb 'be' correctly? * 1 point

Mark only one oval.

- They is happy to see us.
- I am a good friend.
- She be at the party last night.
- We was excited for the trip.

7. Which sentence uses the irregular verb 'bend' correctly? * 1 point

Mark only one oval.

- He bends the rules sometimes.
- She bended the paper carefully.
- They bend the tree last summer.
- I bended down to tie my shoes.

8. Which sentence uses the irregular verb 'bind' correctly? * 1 point

Mark only one oval.

- She binded the pages together.
- They binds the book with a ribbon.
- He bound the wound tightly.
- I bind the letters yesterday.

4. Which sentence uses the irregular verb 'beat' correctly? * 1 point

Mark only one oval.

- He beat the drum loudly.
- They beats the record yesterday.
- She beaten her best time.
- I beat the game last week.

5. Which sentence uses the irregular verb 'become' correctly? * 1 point

Mark only one oval.

- She becomes a doctor last year.
- He became very skilled at painting.
- They becomed friends quickly.
- I become tired after the game.

6. Which sentence uses the irregular verb 'begin' correctly? * 1 point

Mark only one oval.

- The show begun at 7 PM.
- We begins our project tomorrow.
- She began to read the book.
- They begin their journey last week.