

Think Before You Act

Have you heard the term 'Keep your nose clean'? It really just means, to do the right thing which keeps you from getting into trouble. Learning from previous incidents will help you make better decisions. Think of 3 different times you were in trouble and determine what you could have done differently.

What got you into trouble?

What could you have done differently?
