

The Importance of Light

Although, we take light for granted, we know that without light, we could not live. Provide at least 6 reasons that this statement is true.