

Match the Sentence Parts

Photocopy the following cards on to card stock, cut and laminate and mix them up. Students will match subjects (who) to predicates (what) to make sentences. (Determine if silly sentences are acceptable—ie, the old man chewed on a bone or explain to the students, sentences need to be realistic.)

Subject

The young puppy

<https://worksheetplace.com>

Predicate

chewed on a bone.

<https://worksheetplace.com>

Subject

The old man

<https://worksheetplace.com>

Predicate

fell asleep.

<https://worksheetplace.com>

Subject

A new family

<https://worksheetplace.com>

Predicate

moved in next door.

<https://worksheetplace.com>

Subject

The new movie

<https://worksheetplace.com>

Predicate

was really good.

<https://worksheetplace.com>

Make Sentences

Photocopy the following cards on to card stock, cut and laminate and mix them up. Students will match subjects (who) to predicates (what) to make sentences. (Determine if silly sentences are acceptable—ie, the old man chewed on a bone or explain to the students, sentences need to be realistic.)

Subject

Fruits and vegetables

<https://worksheetplace.com>

Predicate

are good for you.

<https://worksheetplace.com>

Subject

Would you like

<https://worksheetplace.com>

Predicate

to go to the park?

<https://worksheetplace.com>

Subject

How many cookies

<https://worksheetplace.com>

Predicate

do you have?

<https://worksheetplace.com>

Subject

My teacher

<https://worksheetplace.com>

Predicate

gave us a test.

<https://worksheetplace.com>

Make Sentences

Photocopy the following cards on to card stock, cut and laminate and mix them up. Students will match subjects (who) to predicates (what) to make sentences. (Determine if silly sentences are acceptable—ie, the old man chewed on a bone or explain to the students, sentences need to be realistic.)

Subject

Would you like

<https://worksheetplace.com>

Predicate

some pizza?

<https://worksheetplace.com>

Subject

My dad

<https://worksheetplace.com>

Predicate

got a new car.

<https://worksheetplace.com>

Subject

Paris is

<https://worksheetplace.com>

Predicate

a great city.

<https://worksheetplace.com>

Subject

My cell phone

<https://worksheetplace.com>

Predicate

stopped working.

<https://worksheetplace.com>

Make Sentences

Photocopy the following cards on to card stock, cut and laminate and mix them up. Students will match subjects (who) to predicates (what) to make sentences. (Determine if silly sentences are acceptable—ie, the old man chewed on a bone or explain to the students, sentences need to be realistic.)

Subject

My sister

<https://worksheetplace.com>

Predicate

has a new friend.

<https://worksheetplace.com>

Subject

The zoo

<https://worksheetplace.com>

Predicate

has lots of animals.

<https://worksheetplace.com>

Subject

My dad

<https://worksheetplace.com>

Predicate

took me fishing.

<https://worksheetplace.com>

Subject

The spelling test

<https://worksheetplace.com>

Predicate

was really easy.

<https://worksheetplace.com>