

Simple, Compound or Complex

➔ Simple: A complete thought with a subject and a predicate.

-It is raining out.

-I love to eat apples.

➔ Compound: 2 or more independent clauses joined together.

- I wanted to go to school but I was too sick

-They arrived late, so they had to stand

➔ Complex: An independent and dependent clause.

- Although I was tired, I could not sleep.

- The movie was very funny, as I expected it to be.

