

Name: _____

Spring Fill in the Blanks

A number of words have been removed from the text and placed in a word bank. Use the words from the word bank to fill in the blanks in the text. Write the words in the blanks provided.

All About Spring

Spring is one of the four _____. Spring falls after the _____ season and before the _____ season. All four of the seasons are determined by the change in _____. In the _____ Hemisphere, spring begins on either March 19th, March 20th, or March 21st depending on the year. However, in the _____ Hemisphere, spring falls between September and November. Spring is also called the Vernal _____ which means equal nights. This is because the days and nights are approximately equal everywhere which means there are about 12 hours of night and 12 hours of daylight. The sun rises _____ and sets _____ in the spring.

There are many signs of spring. The snow _____ and the rivers, streams and lakes become fuller. Spring is often called the season of blossoms. Trees, flowers and grass begin to have buds and soon blossom. Temperatures gradually become _____ throughout the spring season. Animals come out from their _____ or winter hideouts. Many birds will migrate north. Many animals have their _____ in the spring. In the spring, birds will build their nests and have their chicks. You will see more animals, birds and bugs in spring than you do in winter. Spring is also a time for changing _____ patterns. Sometimes, spring will bring storms, floods, hurricanes, warm winds and tornadoes. Spring usually means _____ weather and more rain which helps the grass and crops begin to grow. Spring _____, sunshine and longer days provide the weather that plants need to _____.

There are many changes in nature during the spring. When you take a walk in the spring, it isn't hard to understand why so many people say "Spring is in the air." Spring ends with the _____ solstice.

Name: _____

Spring Cloze Challenge

A number of words have been removed from the text and placed in a word bank. Use the words from the word bank to fill in the blanks in the text. Write the words in the blanks provided.

All About Spring

Spring is one of the four seasons . Spring falls after the winter season and before the summer season. All four of the seasons are determined by the change in sunlight . In the Northern Hemisphere, spring begins on either March 19th, March 20th, or March 21st depending on the year. However, in the Southern Hemisphere, spring falls between September and November. Spring is also called the Vernal Equinox which means equal nights. This is because the days and nights are approximately equal everywhere which means there are about 12 hours of night and 12 hours of daylight. The sun rises earlier and sets later in the spring.

There are many signs of spring. The snow melts and the rivers, streams and lakes become fuller. Spring is often called the season of blossoms. Trees, flowers and grass begin to have buds and soon blossom. Temperatures gradually become warmer throughout the spring season. Animals come out from their hibernation or winter hideouts. Many birds will migrate north. Many animals have their babies in the spring. In the spring, birds will build their nests and have their chicks. You will see more animals, birds and bugs in spring than you do in winter. Spring is also a time for changing weather patterns. Sometimes, spring will bring storms, floods, hurricanes, warm winds and tornadoes. Spring usually means warmer weather and more rain which helps the grass and crops begin to grow. Spring showers , sunshine and longer days provide the weather that plants need to grow .

There are many changes in nature during the spring. When you take a walk in the spring, it isn't hard to understand why so many people say "Spring is in the air." Spring ends with the summer solstice.