

Name: _____

Who, Whoever, Whom, Whomever

1. _____ wants to hear another story?
2. _____ will the students choose as their valedictorian?
3. The students, three of _____ are ill will report to the office first thing in the morning.
4. Jake texted his exchange partner _____ he met in France.
5. Lily is the friend _____ I went camping with last summer.
6. Bob is the boy _____ won the race.
7. Give the prize to _____ earned the most points.
8. He will choose _____ is most qualified.
9. _____ he plays with is none of our business.
10. I spoke to _____ the operator transferred me to.
11. These decisions should be made by _____ takes over the role.
12. _____ he is, this poet is talented!

ANSWERS

1. Who wants to hear another story?
2. Whom will the students choose as their valedictorian?
3. The students, three of whom are ill will report to the office first thing in the morning.
4. Jake texted his exchange partner whom he met in France.
5. Lily is the friend whom I went camping with last summer.
6. Bob is the boy who won the race.
7. Give the prize to whoever earned the most points.
8. He will choose whoever is most qualified.
9. Whomever he plays with is none of our business.
10. I spoke to whomever the operator transferred me to.
11. These decisions should be made by whoever takes over the role.
12. Whoever he is, this poet is talented!