

Name: _____

Been or Being?

1. If you had been/being at the meeting, you would know what time the game starts.
2. Being/been sad is just a part of life sometimes.
3. Been/being there, done that.
4. Being/been there for a friend is sometimes the best thing you can do.
5. If you've never been/being to an island, I'd recommend going there for vacation someday.
6. She was essentially being/been asked to go against her conscience.
7. She had been/being asked to give an account for her actions.
8. Why were you being/been so rude to the cashier?
9. What had been/being would never be again.
10. Being/been articulate and assertive are two qualities of a good public

Answers

1. If you had been at the meeting, you would know what time the game starts.
2. Being sad is just a part of life sometimes.
3. Been there, done that.
4. Being there for a friend is sometimes the best thing you can do.
5. If you've never been to an island, I'd recommend going there for vacation some-day.
6. She was essentially being asked to go against her conscience.
7. She had been asked to give an account for her actions.
8. Why were you being so rude to the cashier?
9. What had been would never be again.
10. Being articulate and assertive are two qualities of a good public speaker.