

Because You're So Special!

If I could give my Dad anything in the world, this is what I would give him and this is why:

A large empty rectangular box with a solid black border, intended for drawing a picture of a gift.
