

The Shop: Poem

In the shop, I see and chase,
Toys and games all in one place.
Mom and Dad say, "Pick just one,"
I choose a ball for lots of fun.

In the cart, it starts to slip,
I catch it fast with a quick grip.
We check out and then we leave,
Happy smiles, we all believe.

On the way, I chew some gum,
Chewy, sweet, I give some to Mom.
Home at last, the day is done,
Shopping trips are so much fun!
